NEW BUSINESS

Members continued the discussion of the master plan and reviewed chapter three. Veronnica Kenreich suggested that members look over the Village of Cassopolis' Master Plan as she felt it is one of the best ones she has seen. Debbie Brown would like to consider sending a survey out to residents to see what direction they would like to see the township go especially since it has not been done for years. Mike Glynn agrees but states it would only result in about 10% of the opinions being heard and feels it does not reflect a good enough swatch to gather the type of information needed to make decisions. Veronnica Kenreich suggests having a more interactive website with polling capabilities. Tim Feirick likes the current language that protects or preserves the agricultural and countryside spaces and would like to keep it. General discussion ensued.
